In all other respects, the information set forth in the November 27, 2006 Notice remains the same.

WEBSITE POSTINGS

The revised text of the proposed regulations and other documents related to the proposed regulations are available on the Department's website. To access them, go to <http://www.insurance.ca.gov>. On the left side of the page, under 'Tools', click on the drop down menu entitled 'Consumer Tools.' In this section, scroll down until you see the subheading 'Regulations.' Select the 'Regulations' icon. When the next screen appears, click on the heading 'Proposed Regulations.' At the next screen, click 'Search for Proposed Regulations.' Once the 'Search or Browse for Documents for Proposed Regulations' screen appears, you may choose to find the documents either by conducting a search or by browsing for them by name.

To search, enter "RH05049799" (the Department's regulation file number for these regulations) in the 'Search for' field. Then, click on the 'Submit' button to display links to the various filing documents.

To browse, click on the 'Browse All Regulations' button near the bottom of the screen. A list of the names of regulations for which documents are posted will appear. Find in the list the 'Title Insurance Rate Regulation and Statistical Plan' link, and click it. Links to the documents associated with these regulations will then be displayed.
